

Overland Expo East 2019

Michael Ladden

Overland Adventure Trailers

The Good, Bad & Reality Of Pulling Your Mobile Camp

Michael Ladden, Instructor | mladden@drivetheglobe.com | drivetheglobe.com

The Good

Advantages Of A Trailer

- Roll In & Explore, The Base Camp Theory
  - A Good Nights Sleep
    - More Storage
  - Gadgetry, Better Suited For The Amenities
- Longer Travel Range, More Food, More Fuel, More Supplies
  - Weather Resistance
- Great Platform For Roof Top Tent- Lower & More Accessible
  - Your Set Up Doesn't Have To Come Down To Go To Town
- Makes Your Rig A Better Daily Driver & A Better 4x4 Off Road
  - Family Friendly
  - The Pack Up

The Bad

Dis-Advantages Of A Trailer

- Maneuvering Everywhere, & I Mean Everywhere!
  - Weight
  - Fuel Usage Goes Up
  - Storing It Some Place
    - $$$, wow!
- Off Road, Especially Technical Off-road Is Tough If Not Impossible
  - Wear & Tear On The Tow Vehicle

The Reality

Life With An Overland Expedition Trailer

- See More Because You Are Comfortable
- It is Often A Drag, Especially In Metro Areas
  - Pack It, Forget It, Just Go
- Some Trips Are Made For A Trailer, Others Are Not
  - A Hot Shower Sure Is Nice
- Have You Ever Owned A Boat, It Is A Little Like That

My UXT 1102 (How I Ended Up Here)

Roof Top Tent, Ground Tent, Back Of The Truck- Help!!

My Six Main Reasons

- Comfortable Bed, OFF The Ground
- Heated, Protected From The Weather, Enclosed Area That I Can Stand Up
  - No Set Up Of Any Kind
    - Work Space
    - Hot Water Shower
  - Completely Self Supporting

Notes:

